ISIA Ski Instructors World Championships 2017

The organizer Tourismus Engadin Scuol Samnaun Val Müstair AG, Dorfstrasse 4, CH-7563 Samnaun Dorf, invites all member associations to the ISIA Ski Instructors World Championships 2017.

Disciplines

Giant slalom, parallel team event, snowboard cross, formations skiing

Place/date

Samnaun – Switzerland
April 26–30, 2017

Rules

The competition will be held according to the competition rules of the ISIA-World championships Samnaun 2017 (issued by the ISIA TC) and the international competition rules of the FIS (if not specified otherwise within the previous regulations).

Eligibility, Liability

Participation in the competitions is open to all ski instructors who are regular members of any association that is affiliated to the ISIA. Participants must bear the annual international badge. Registrations are made through the national ISIA association.

Ski instructors from an association with observer status may participate as »guests« at the world championships 2017.

Ski instructors participating in the current season in European Cup or World Cup races (FIS) or who are active in (alpine skiing) "professional organizations" are not allowed to participate.

All participants compete at their own risk and have to sign the liability exclusion. Participants are responsible for their own insurance.

Entry quota

Each nation may participate with up to 25 competitors in alpine giant slalom (in all three categories) and in formations skiing with up to 6 teams (6 racers and max. 2 reserve racers per team). The hosting nation is allowed to enter with 30 participants in alpine GS and 7 teams in formations skiing. Titleholders do not count to the quota.
